Because we use the most unique, mouthblown glass, each window sparkles with color and texture. These jewels create a magnificent feel in every space. Our attention to detail, client requirements and design style, are just a few of the elements we consider. We are honored to create works of art for any space, ensuring that it will last for many years to come.

TerHaar Stained Glass Studio has over 50 years experience and expertise in the maintenance, repair and restoration of all types of leaded stained glass windows. We take special care in preserving the integrity of the original design, glass, leading and reinforcing materials.

We offer a no obligation, no cost visit to your building site to consult, evaluate, provide a written report and cost estimate for repairing your stained glass windows. Please feel free to contact us.

Exposure, weight and age take a natural toll on leaded windows when they reach 70 to 100 years of age. Sometimes the repair and restoration is minimal even after this amount of time. In some cases, windows will show bowing, bending, broken solder joints, loosened reinforcing bars and cracked glass and may need to be completely re-leaded and reinforced.
